The Bulletin.

Norwich, Monday, June 7, 1939.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Borers are injuring maple trees in some towns.

Watch out for timetable changes if traveling today!

Four weeks from today is July 5, date of the big celebration.

Fine weather on Sunday increased the congregations at the communion services.

Saturday's rain and gale stripped the blossoms from flowering trees in exposed places.

For city election today the polls open in the four districts at 9 a. m. and close at 4 p. m.

Mountain laurel, the state flower, is in bloom on the hills along the Groton division of the New Haven road.

A local nurseryman has recently sold 250 Japanese ivies to the Wauregan company, to be planted so as to grow over their big mill at Wauregan.

At the first of the summer services at Pequot chapel, New London, on June 20th, Rev. Nelson Poe Carey of Christ church, Norwich, will officiate.

There is local interest in the twenty-fifth anniversary meeting of the Robinson family to be held at the Robinson homestead on Prospect hill, Franklin, on Thursday, June 24.

The Connecticut Typothetae will hold its June meeting in Stamford on Monday, the 14th inst. Dinner will be served the delegates at the Stamford Yacht club, and they will enjoy a sail on Long Island sound during the afternoon.

Yesterday was Trinity Sunday, on the feast of the Blessed Trinity. Since the early ages this feast has been observed by the Catholic church, and in 1324 Pope John XXII ordered its observance on the Sunday following the feast of Pentecost.

The death of Mrs. Myra Lincoln Morong, wife of Capt. John C. Morong, U. S. N., retired, is noted in California papers just received here. She was a visitor to New London with her husband several summers ago. A half-brother, Hiram E. Lincoln of East Lyons, survives her in the east.

Two candidates from Norwich were initiated Friday night at a meeting of Lady Aberdeen, Daughters of Scotia, at New London. Mrs. David Lamond was installed as financial secretary, and Mrs. Duncan Smith was installed as treasurer of the lodge. They were given their special election to all vacancies.

The board of managers of the Society of Sons of the Revolution in Connecticut met yesterday afternoon at the Hartford club to plan for the annual meeting of the society to be held on Friday, June 25, at the Nathan Hale school house in East Haddam.
All the patriotic societies will be invited.

Connecticut will have a new state reformatory patterned on the most modern lines if the general assembly accepts the report of the committee on appropriations. At the executive meeting of the committee Friday afternoon it was voted to appropriate the sum of $400,000 for the first cost of the institution.

At a business meeting of the Society of Colonial Wars of Connecticut held in the Hartford Golf club on Friday afternoon Judge Morris Beach Beardley of Bridgeport was elected governor to succeed Major Bela Peck Learned of Norwich. The historian read sketches of Col. George W. Tyler of Litchfield, Col. Augustus S. Tyler of New London and George Edwin Taylor of Hartford, who died within the year.

Saturday's Springfield Republican said: The Indian Orchard police yesterday, in response to a request from Peter Bohava of Norwich, Conn. took into custody his son, Michael Bohava, at East Main street. The young man, who is 17 years of age, left his home some time ago and his parents finally located him in Indian Orchard. His father will come to Springfield to take the boy home, the boy having been turned over to the city police.

Common Pleas Court.
At New London on Saturday the court of common pleas, Judge Waller, was engaged in hearing the cases of Michael v. Cameron, a suit for $100 for board and liquor, and Goldstein v. Yessowick, a mortgage suit for $100 for selling out of court. In both cases Judge Waller reserved his decision.

In the case of John J. Lawless against J. W. Pierpont and George N. Y. Stephen Hasbrouck and Stephen A. Hasbrouck of 161 Lexington avenue, New York, Judge Waller of the court of common pleas gave an order of notice permitting copy of a written and the order of notice to be served on the defendants at their respective homes. The suit was brought by the plaintiff for services rendered the defendants in bankruptcy proceedings about five months ago when they filed a petition in bankruptcy. Damages are claimed amounting to $150.

Dance for Seniors.
The dance given by the upper middle class to the seniors of the Academy on Saturday evening was a successful affair. In addition to the members of the classes, there were also present many members of the faculty in attendance, and the members of the baseball team were also invited.
The gymnasium had been attractively decorated with flags and flowers.
During the evening there was fruit punch and Mabrey served the ice cream and cake. The ladies having the affair in charge consisted of Messrs. Worth, Almy, Ricketts, Noyes, Tarrant and Cummings, and Misses Loring, Whitman, Bidwell, Gardner and Burke.

Second Church Cradle Roll.
The annual cradle roll of the Second Congregational church was held with Elizabeth and Horace Biss on Saturday afternoon. Because of the inclement weather there were few children present. Master Edward Delomba acted as the "best of honor." The infant was a girl, named after her only baby. Games and recitations were enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served and about three dollars will be gathered from the sale boxes.

Charged With Murder.
Charged with the murder of Alfonso Rabuto in a saloon in New London on May 27, Dominic Diadato was brought over to the superior court Friday by Judge Cotti in the New London police court. As is provided in the Connecticut laws, no bond was allowed, and Diadato must spend the time until September in jail until the fight for his life is started.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ringer have returned from their wedding trip.

Jacob Swartzburg, who has been here several days, has returned to New York.

her sister, Mrs. William Doty of Union street, and will remain for the coming celebration.

Mrs. Rose Riley left here Friday to join her husband in Terre Haute, Ind., where he has located in business. Before going west she will stop for several days at Hartford to visit her sisters.

Dr. Peter Colberg, who is located at St. John's hospital, Lowell, is visiting for several days at his home on Hedge avenue. Dr. Colberg expects to return here about July 1 and after the summer vacation will locate in Worcester to establish a practice.

Miss Linda A. Richmond, who teaches at Gallup hill, has returned to her school after a trip to Williamstown, where she attended the celebration given by Principal and Mrs. H. T.
Burr to the graduating class of the normal school, of which she is a member.
